

January Match Activity Ideas

Home Depot Kid's Workshops

Kids Workshops are FREE "How-To Workshops" designed for children ages 5-12. The hands-on sessions are offered on the first Saturday of each month between 9m and noon at all Home Depot Stores. The Home Depot's Kids Workshops offer useful projects including the creation of toolboxes, fire trucks and mail organizers, as well as more educational projects, such as a window birdhouse, bughouse or Declaration of Independence frame kit. In addition to the newly constructed project kit, each child receives a kid-sized orange apron, similar to The Home Depot associates' aprons, and an achievement pin. Call your local Home Depot for more information. (Valley: 509-534-8588, North Side: 509-466-899)

North Bowl Bowling

Back Blaster Sundays! Every Sunday from 9am to 12pm, only $1 per game (plus tax).

The Art of the Carousel

The Chase Gallery presents "The Art of the Carousel," January 5 - February 26. The exhibit features art and artifacts celebrating the 100 Year Anniversary of Spokane's Looft Carousel. Gallery hours are 8am-9pm Mondays, and 8am-5pm Tuesdays-Fridays. The Chase Gallery is located on the lower level of Spokane City Hall and is FREE and open to the public.

Spokane Public Library Free Movie

WALL-E

Left behind to clean up trash after humans have abandoned Earth, a small, lonely robot with a big heart finds a new purpose when he falls for a sleek machine named Eve, who's come to find out if humanity can return to its home planet.

January 23rd at 2pm, South Hill Library. For more information, call 509-444-5385.

Free Community Winter Walking Groups

As the weather turns chilly, you can count on Community Health Education and Resources (CHER) to provide a warm environment to help you get in your physical activity! CHER walking group leaders will help keep you motivated to continue your walking even through Spokane's cold winter months. Best of all, these walking groups are FREE and open to all ages. Walking groups meet at the Downtown YMCA (Near Riverfront Park) at 507 N. Howard Street in the YMCA gym. For more information, call 509-232-8138 or www.cherspokane.org. Mondays - 5:30 - 6:30 p.m., Wednesdays - Noon - 1 p.m.
